RESPONSE IN OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRO HAC
VICE ADMISSION OF DAVID DINIELLI
ON BEHALF OF DEFENDANTS
AYDLETTE, WILLIAMS, DAVIS AND SEARCY

Defendants Aydlette, Williams, Davis and Searcy file this response in opposition to Plaintiffs' latest motion for pro hac vice admission of an out-of-state attorney. Plaintiffs' motion, ECF Docket Entry #85, requests the admission of yet another attorney employed by the Southern Poverty Law Center, David Dinielli.

These Defendants previously did not oppose a limited number of pro hac vice attorneys being admitted for this case, but Plaintiffs' most recent motion is to add what would be the eighth lawyer for Plaintiffs. These Defendants object to the appearance of an eighth attorney and further reserve their objection to any attempt to collect attorney's fees where multiple attorneys bill time for duplicative or redundant work, if Plaintiffs were to prevail in this case. Being that three other Southern Poverty Law Center attorneys who appear to be capable to represent Plaintiffs have already appeared, admission of Mr. Dinielli would be redundant.

For the reasons stated above, Defendants Aydlette, Williams, Davis and Searcy respectfully request that the Court deny Plaintiffs' motion for pro hac vice admission (ECF Docket Entry #85).
